The Board of Directors of the Transferor Company proposed Amalgamation of the Transferor Company with the Transferee Company and reasons therefor are as follows:

a) The proposed Amalgamation of both the Transferor and Transferee Company would enable economies in administration and management. It will improve the combined profitability as there would be reduction in overhead costs. The Amalgamation will pave way for efficient and economic control in the running of the operations of the business being carried on independently by both the Companies.

b) The Amalgamation of the Companies will have the benefit of stability of operation and would help to achieve efficient utilization of the resources and facilities. The consolidation of business will achieve rationalization of the management structure and economies of scale for further and stable growth, expansion and diversification and for better and more profitable utilization of the combined resources.

c) The Amalgamation of the Companies will improve the capital base and the combined credit worthiness of both the Companies, which will be beneficial to the business.

d) The Amalgamation would enable the Company to have combined financial resources and goodwill of both the Transferor and Transferee Companies.

e) The proposed Amalgamation would also enable the Transferee Company to have a capital and financial base, which would be in the over all interests of both the Companies, thereby ensuring better growth and will culminate in increase of its leveraging capacity i.e. its capacity to borrow funds for business purposes.

f) The proposed Amalgamation is not only beneficial to the shareholders but also to their employees as they would get stock options etc.

The respective Boards of Directors of both the Companies at the meetings held on 17.11.2003 approved the Scheme of Amalgamation subject to approval of this Court. Under the Scheme, it was agreed to pay five shares of Transferor Company for one share of Transferor Company and the interests of employees and workers is taken care of in Clause 6 (ii) of the Scheme of Amalgamation. Clause 8(f) of the Scheme is to the effect that upon Amalgamation becoming effective, the authorized share capital of the Transferor Company be deemed to have been added to the authorized capital of the Transferee Company.

The Official Liquidator has filed two reports in Company Petition No:38 of 2004 to the effect that the affairs of the Company have not been conducted in a manner prejudicial to the public interest or to the interest of members of the Company. In a subsequent report dated 25.06.2004, the objection is however taken with the clubbing of the authorized capital of the Transferor Company to the authorized capital of the Transferee Company.

A common counter affidavit is filed by the Registrar of Companies on behalf of the Regional Director of Department of Company Affairs raising objection with regard to the Clause 8(f) of the Scheme, which contemplates the clubbing of the authorized capital of the Transferor Company with the Transferee Company. It is further stated that the Transferee Company has to comply with the provisions of Sections 94 and 97 of the Companies Act, 1956 in case the Transferee Company proposes to increase its authorized capital.

The learned counsel for the petitioners Sri V.S.Raju submits that in view of the objections raised by the Regional Director, Department of Company Affairs, the Transferee Company of the Scheme of Amalgamation would comply with the provisions of Sections 94 and 97 of the Companies Act, 1956 and he prayed to sanction the Scheme as may be modified by this Court. Insofar as other objection of not filing the 'No Objection Certificate' from Calcutta Stock Exchange along with the petition is concerned, 'No Objection Certificate' issued by the Hyderabad Stock Exchange is enclosed. As held by this Court In re Compact Power Sources Pvt., Ltd.,¹ 'No Objection Certificate' from the concerned Stock Exchange is not mandatory and the mandatory requirement of regulations is limited to mere filing of the Scheme/Petition before the Stock Exchange for approval at least a month prior to presenting the Scheme/petition under Sections 391 and 394 of the Companies Act, before the Court or Tribunal. Therefore, I overrule the objection raised by the Central Government. The Scheme of Amalgamation between the Transferor Company and Transferee Company has been approved by the respective Members of Directors. In the meeting of the shareholders of the Transferee Company convened under the Presidentship of the Chairperson appointed by this Court, the shareholders unanimously resolved to approve the Scheme of Amalgamation. The petitioners have complied with all requirements of law under Sections 391 to 394 and therefore there cannot be any objection for approving the Scheme.

Accordingly, the Scheme of Arrangement for Amalgamation of the Transferor Company with the Transferee Company is sanctioned. As a result of which the Transferor Company shall stand dissolved without any process for winding up. The petitioners shall file a certified copy of the order in Form No.41 within fourteen days from the date of receipt of the order.

The Company Petitioners are accordingly allowed.

COMPANY PETITION Nos.14, 15 and 16 of 2006

COMMON ORDER :

These three Company Petitions are filed by the two Transferor Companies viz., Credence Pharmaceuticals Limited (for short 'CPL') and Hemarus Healthcare Private Limited (for short 'HHPL'), and the Transferee Company viz., Zenotech Laboratories Limited (for short 'ZLL'), under Section 394 of Companies Act, 1956 (for short 'the Act') read with Rule 79 of the Companies (Court) Rules, 1959 (for short 'the Rules'), seeking approval of the scheme of amalgamation, under which the Transferor Companies are sought to be merged with the Transferee Company.

In view of the proposed scheme of amalgamation, the Board of Directors of the CPL/Transferor Company passed a resolution, approving the scheme of amalgamation, subject to the approval of the shareholders, creditors and the Court. In pursuance of the said decision, the petitioner company filed C.A.1229/2005, seeking to appoint a Chairperson for convening the meeting of the shareholders of the petitioner company; accordingly, an order was passed on 23.11.2005 by this Court. Thereafter, the meeting of the shareholders was convened on 07.01.2006, for which 18 members attended the said meeting, holding shares valued at Rs.5,53,90,510/- divided into 55,39,051 equity shares of Rs.10/- each. Two shareholders were represented by proxies, having shares, valued at Rs.25,000/- divided into 2,500 equity shares of Rs.10/- each, out of the Issued, subscribed and paid up capital of Rs.7,51,14,960/- divided into 75,11,496 equity shares of Rs.10/- each.

subject to the approval of the shareholders as well as the Court. In conformity with the said decision, the petitioner company filed C.A.1230/2005, seeking to dispense with the convening the meeting of the shareholders. Since the shareholders are very limited and they have filed their affidavits, giving consent to the proposed scheme of amalgamation, therefore, this Court passed an order on 23.11.2005, dispensing with the convening of the meeting of the shareholders.

The third Company, viz., Zenotech Laboratories Limited, is the Transferee Company, which was incorporated as private limited on 22.12.1998. Subsequently, it was merged with Sunline Technologies Limited, as per the approval of the scheme of amalgamation by this Court in C.P.Nos.38 and 39 of 2004, dated 01.07.2004. applications of bio-technology in the fields of development of medicines for human, plant or animal uses, the other activities are elaborately mentioned in para-5 at page-2 of the petition.

The Board of Directors of the Transferee Company, in view of the proposed scheme of amalgamation, passed a resolution, approving the scheme, subject to the approval of the shareholders, as well as the Court. In pursuance of the said decision of the Board of Directors, C.A.1231/2005 was filed, seeking convening the meeting of the shareholders, by appointing a Chairperson, accordingly, this Court passed an order on 23.11.2005, and the Chairperson, appointed by this Court, convened the meeting of the shareholders on 07.01.2006, after issuing notices individually, as well as by publication in the newspapers. The said meeting was attended by 48 shareholders in person, while six shareholders were represented by proxies, having total value of the share capital of Rs.8,06,82,460/- divided into 80,68,246 equity shares of Rs.10/- each, out of the issued, subscribed and paid up capital of Rs.15,68,28,000/- divided into 1,56,82,800 equity shares of Rs.10/- each.

The scheme of amalgamation was put for approval and the said resolution was approved by the shareholders of the value of Rs.8,06,64,460/- divided into 80,66,446 equity shares, while two shareholders, having share value of Rs.13,000/- divided into 1,300 equity shares voted against, while the vote of one shareholder, by proxy, was invalid, whose value was Rs. 5,000/- divided into 500 equity shares. Therefore, it was reported by the Chairperson that the majority, by more than 90% of the shareholders presented and voted, have approved the scheme of amalgamation.

Managing Director

This Court, while admitting the Company Petitions, ordered notice to the Central Government, as well as to the Official Liquidator, apart from directing the notice to be published in 'Indian Express' English daily and 'Vartha' Telugu daily of Hyderabad editions, and accordingly, notices were published in the newspapers, proof of which was already filed.

In response to the notices, served on the Official Liquidator and the Central Government, the Official Liquidator filed his report, stating that the companies did not obtain the approval of the scheme by the secured creditors. It is further stated that the Transferor Companies shares are not listed on the stock exchange, while the Transferee Company was a listed company. As the shares that are issued to the shareholders of the Transferor Companies would get listed with stock exchange, therefore, the Transferee Company has to comply with the requirements of listing all the securities on the stock exchange in terms of the Securities and Contract Regulations Act. Apart from the above two objections, there are no other objections pointed out by the Official Liquidator. While the Registrar of the Companies, who filed the affidavit, has stated that the Transferor Companies did not seek relief of dissolution of the Transferor companies without winding up, therefore, the Transferor companies cannot be dissolved under the proposed scheme of amalgamation.

With reference to the Transferee Company, it is stated that it is a listed company and it has not produced 'no objection' letter for the proposed scheme of amalgamation from the stock exchange, where the shares have been listed. Therefore, approval of the scheme of amalgamation shall be subject to the above compliance.

In response to the said objections, in fact the Transferor Companies have filed amendment petitions, seeking relief of dissolution to be incorporated in the scheme of amalgamation, as well as the order of dissolution in the petitions, which were already ordered. With reference to the second objection raised, i.e. non-production of no objection certificate from the Stock Exchange, it is stated that under the Rules, no objection certificate is not required, as decided by this Court, and what is contemplated is an intimation to the stock exchange as to the proposed scheme of amalgamation and the said communication has already been issued by the Transferee Company, as early as on 03.10.2005, in proof of the same, a copy of the communication, sent to the stock exchange, has been filed along with the reply, therefore, sought for approval of the same. It is stated that there are secured creditors in respect of first Transferor Company viz., Credence Pharmaceuticals Limited, whose consent letters are already filed. There are no creditors of the 2nd Transferor Company, viz., Hemarus Healthcare Private Limited.

In response to the notice issued by publication, no objections are received from any third parties. The scheme of amalgamation provides for transfer of the assets and liabilities of the Transferor Companies to the Transferee Company on approval of the scheme with effect from the appointed date. It is stated that the employees, workmen and other staff of the Transferor Companies with effect from the appointed date, would become the employees of the Transferee Company without effecting their continuity of their service and other benefits, including the jurisdiction of their employment, which are not less favourable than what they are enjoying as employees of the Transferor Companies. It is stated that when the scheme becoming effective, the shareholders of the Credence Pharmaceuticals Limited would be issued two equity shares of Rs.10/- each fully paid up for every three equity shares of Rs.10/- each fully paid up, held by the shareholders of the Transferor Companies. Similarly, with reference to the Hemarus Healthcare Private Limited, when the scheme becoming effective, the Transferee Company shall, without any further application or deed, issue 51 equity shares of Rs.10/- each fully paid up of the Transferee Company to the shareholders of the Transferor Company for every 10 equity shares of the value of Rs.10/- each fully paid up, and the Transferor Companies would get dissolved without winding up orders.

// CERTIFIED TRUE COPY //

For ZENOTECH LABORATORIES LTD.

Managing Director

As no objections are received from anybody and as a swap ratio fixed is based on valuation as determined by the qualified persons, and the same has already been approved by the shareholders, while considering the scheme of amalgamation, there is no objection for approving the scheme of amalgamation, as sought for.

Accordingly, the scheme of amalgamation, as sought for, is approved, and the Transferor Companies are ordered to be dissolved, without winding up, from the date of the scheme comes into operation. The petitioners are directed to serve copy of this order on the Registrar of Companies, within a period of 30 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

These Company Petitions are, accordingly, ordered.
